We had an absolutely fantastic time. We didn't have anything to eat or drink that we didn't love. It was an excellent start to the evening, and we'll definitely be back. The only drawback was that we had a show to get to... in hindsight, I think we would have had a better time just staying at the restaurant. Thanks again, Johnathan and Angie

I entertain clients every week in large cities all over the U.S., so I have seen it all when it comes to fine dining. The food was very good and the we had a good time, but if they want to up their game and be known as one of the best places to dine, they are going to have to improve their table service. It was not bad, but it was not good either. Normally at a restaurant in their price range there are several folks watching the table to make sure everyone is being served (fresh drink, top off water glass).

One of the best meals I have had in Nashville since moving here in 1996. Frog legs were spectacular!

I have been to Flyte many times. First and foremost they have a great menu with outstanding food- very creative salads, terrific appetizers and main courses. The wine list is not large but is well represented. The split between "everyday" and special occasion wines allows for good breadth of styles and price points. They also have done a great job selecting out of the ordinary offerings.

Our server, Todd, was excellent. He knew his menu and his wine list, and he treated us extremely well throughout the meal. We will definitely be back and we will be recommending the restaurant to friends.

The staff of the restaurant was extremely friendly and professional. The food was tasty with great presentation and just the right portions. Save room for dessert. It was great overall dining experience. I am looking forward to going back.

My wife and I enjoyed our experience. Our waiter was excellent: We had personal attention without any feeling of intrusion. We only had 75 minutes, in a hurry to make the symphony, and that was my only regret. I felt comfortable and wanted to linger over coffee. Two suggestions: There was one waiter with almost shoulder length black hair and a somewhat uncombed look. Needs to be tied back or trimmed. I'm sure some customers are afraid they will find a long black hair on the table. Most of the art in the main dinning are is a brown, tan, and black abstract series with a fairly anxious, forboding feel. Seems out of character with the food, service and resturant name. Would expect to see something lighter, relaxing, calm.
